

Now get Paid More to Learn! Upto $900! Attention Middle and High School Teachers! Science, Social Studies, English, World Language, ETC.

Are you interested in helping students:

- Practice 21st century skills?
- Understand, analyze and interpret data?
- Argue from evidence?
- Enhance an existing lesson!

Now seeking participants for Power of Data Teacher Workshops.

Please contact Peter Stetson (see below) for the link to the application.
Application deadline April 26, 2019

- WHAT: A 5 day paid professional development opportunity to learn to effectively integrate geospatial technologies to enhance student learning in existing lessons.
- WHEN: Two opportunities, you pick the week that works for you: June 24-28 or August 19-23
- WHERE: June - Woodward Hall, URI Kingston Campus; August - ASF Middle School in Coventry
- BENEFITS: High quality professional learning experience
- Up to $900 stipend for full participation in all project components
Instructional and technical support as you implement
Opportunity to work alongside colleagues

For an application or more information, please email:

Peter Stetson - petestetson8@gmail.com

Power of Data website: <http://www.pod-stem.org/>

Supported by

NORTHERN ARIZONA UNIVERSITY | College of Engineering, Forestry, and Natural Sciences
Center for Science Teaching and Learning